

January 13, 2010

Contact: Heather Harper (504) 289-0499

Eastbank Collaborative of Charter Schools Announces 2010 Officers

The Eastbank Collaborative of Charter Schools (ECCS) announces its 2010 Executive Officers: Kathy Riedlinger (Principal, Lusher Charter) returns as President; Sean Wilson (Head of School, International School of Louisiana), as Treasurer; and Michelle Douglas (Hynes Charter), is the newly appointed Secretary. (PHOTO ATTACHED of new officer Michelle Douglas)

The Eastbank Collaborative of Charter Schools (ECCS) is a formal alliance of 10 public schools in Orleans Parish. This collaborative promotes independent, public charter schools as a permanent option for children. The ECCS is a 501c3 working to maintain the maximum autonomy of each member school, while protecting the long-term structure, durability and operation of all charters in Louisiana. Also, ECCS is a voluntary-network dedicated to keeping principals and their charter boards “in charge” through information and advocacy, shared services, and reduced costs.

Member Schools:

- Audubon Charter
- Ben Franklin High School
- Einstein Elementary Charter
- Hynes Charter School
- International School of Louisiana
- Lake Forest Elementary Charter
- Lusher Charter
- Moton Elementary
- New Orleans Charter Science and Math High School
- Warren Easton Senior High

Managed by the School Leadership Center of Greater New Orleans with funding from Baptist Community Ministries