Description of Focus: The UNO Charter Network's Mission is to reshape the culture of education reform by creating learning environments where academic success is not a hope but an expectation.

To be successful: The UNO teacher is unique in that they realize that success is built on relationships and they focus their work on student learning not teaching. Furthermore, they whole-heartedly believe that all students can learn and that it is all of our responsibilities to develop our students, both personally and academically.

School Pays Health for dependents - Yes: checked
